

Hinckley Allen Expands Partnership, Elevating Ryan M. Gainor to Partner

January 8, 2020

Hinckley Allen today announced that Ryan M. Gainor has been elevated to Partner. Ryan assumed his new position effective January 1, 2020.

“Ryan has all the qualities that we value in our lawyers at Hinckley Allen,” said David J. Rubin, Managing Partner at Hinckley Allen. “We are proud of his exceptional legal expertise, commitment to our litigation practice, and his dedication to serving the community. It is with great pride that I announce Ryan’s elevation to Partner.”

Ryan M. Gainor practices with Hinckley Allen’s Litigation group. His practice focuses on complex commercial litigation and intellectual property disputes. Ryan is experienced in all phases of litigation including pre-litigation dispute resolution, motion practice, summary judgment, mediation, trial and appeals. He practices in state and federal courts.

We thank Ryan for his contribution and look forward to his continued growth and leadership in the new role.

For the latest news and updates, please follow Hinckley Allen on Twitter and LinkedIn.

Associated People

Ryan M. Gainor

Related Practices

Litigation

Intellectual Property

Albany Boston Chicago Hartford Manchester New York Providence