

Hinckley Allen Adds Strength in 5 Practice Groups with 6 New Associates

November 8, 2013

Christopher M. Addesa

Chris joins the Real Estate practice in Boston as an Associate. Chris was formerly with Brown Rudnick LLP in Boston where he has practiced since 2011. Prior to joining Brown Rudnick, Chris was an associate at Burns & Levinson from 2005 – 2011. Chris has broad experience in real estate transactions and real estate lending, including representing buyers and sellers of commercial properties and institutional lenders on loan facilities and on loan workouts. Chris received his J.D. from Suffolk University Law School, cum laude, 2005 and his B.A. from Amherst College, cum laude, 1999.

Sarah A. Collins

Sarah joins the Corporate practice in Boston as an Associate. While in law school, Sarah worked for Volunteer Lawyers for the Arts, working directly with clients on intellectual property and arts-related cases. She also interned in the MBTA General Counsel's office, working with the interim General Counsel. While in law school, Sarah worked as a Paralegal Assistant for Jorden Burt LLP in Washington, DC and was involved in projects for both the Litigation and Corporate departments. Sarah received her J.D. from Boston University, 2013 and her A.B. from Georgetown University, magna cum laude, 2010.

Christina A. Fish

Christina joins the Construction practice in Boston as an Associate. Christina was a Summer Intern for Suffolk County District Attorney, Major Felonies Bureau in 2011. She also spent time interning for the Barnstable County District Attorney, Victim Witness Advocate Program and MacSweeney and Company Solicitors in Galway, Ireland. Christina received her J.D. from Boston College Law School, 2013 and her B.A. from Bowdoin College, 2010.

Katherine N. Kishfy

Katherine joins the Trusts & Estates practice in Providence as an Associate. Katherine spent the last year after law school clerking for The Honorable Chief Justice Paul A. Suttell in the Supreme Court of Rhode Island. Additionally Katherine was a Legal Intern for the Honorable Judge Mary Lisi, Federal District Court of Rhode Island, and the Honorable Frances A. McIntyre in New Bedford, MA and The Honorable Judith Colenback Savage in Wakefield, RI. Kate was a National Teaching Fellow for AmeriCorps respectively. Katherine received her J.D. from Roger Williams University School of Law, summa cum laude and Valedictorian, 2012, her M.A. from Lesley University, 2008 and B.A. from Brown University, magna cum laude, 2006.

Brendan J. Lowd

Brendan joins the Labor & Employment, Litigation and Construction Public Contracts practice in Boston. During law school he was a staff editor on the Georgetown Journal on Poverty Law & Policy. He worked as a law clerk at The Employment Law Group, P.C., an employment discrimination firm in D.C. Brendan was a toxic tort paralegal for Cetrulo & Capone LLP in Boston in 2010. Brendan earned his J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center, 2013 and B.A from Marquette University, magna cum laude, 2009.

Andrew S. Tugan

Andy joins the Litigation practice in Providence. During Law School he worked as an extern for the Honorable William E. Smith at the United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island and as an intern for the Honorable Bennett Gallo at the Rhode Island Superior Court. Andy served in the United States Navy as a Surface Warfare Officer during 2005-2010. He served on the USS NITZE as the executive department head, navigator and strike officer. Andy earned his J.D. from Roger Williams University School of Law, Valedictorian, summa cum laude in 2013 and his B.A. from Iowa State University, 2005.

Associated People

Christopher M. Addesa

Kate N. Kishfy

Albany Boston Chicago Hartford Manchester New York Providence