

Hinckley Allen Welcomes New Associate Thomas J. Pagliarini to Its Litigation Practice

March 13, 2017

Hinckley Allen is pleased to welcome Thomas J. Pagliarini to its Litigation practice. Tom was most recently an Associate at Pierce Atwood, LLP.

Tom will focus the majority of his practice with the Labor & Employment group, and is also available to handle general litigation matters. Tom has experience representing clients in a wide variety of employment matters, including discrimination, whistleblower and retaliation, wage and hour/prevaling wage, trade secret and restrictive covenant, dual employer and independent contractor, governmental/regulatory investigations, and employee benefits issues. He is admitted to practice in state and federal court in Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Tom served as a judicial law clerk for Rhode Island Supreme Court Associate Justice Gilbert V. Indeglia upon earning his J.D. from Roger Williams University School of Law, summa cum laude. During law school, Tom was an intern for Senior Circuit Judge Bruce M. Selya of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit and Associate Justice Brian P. Stern of the Rhode Island Superior Court. He received a B.A. from Bryant University, summa cum laude.

We look forward to his contributions in the Litigation Group at Hinckley Allen.
