

Chambers High Net Worth Advisors Guide 2019 Recognizes Hinckley Allen Partners Doris J. Licht and Paul A. Silver

July 11, 2019

---

Chambers High Net Worth (HNW) Advisors Guide 2019 has recognized Hinckley Allen as a leading firm in the State of Rhode Island for Private Wealth Law, and Partners Doris J. Licht and Paul A. Silver as leading practitioners in advising high net worth clients.

Doris J. Licht

Doris' practice encompasses working with individuals and families on all aspects of estate planning as well as working with clients in connection with the administration of estates and trusts. Her planning focuses on achieving clients' objectives while being mindful of transfer tax implications.

Paul A. Silver

Paul's practice is focused in the areas of trust and estate planning, administration, and litigation, with additional work in personal income taxes and other individual-related legal issues. He specialized in the representation in tax-exempt organizations and charitable gift planning, representing both institutions and donors.

Chambers and Partners HNW rankings are based on objective research, including extensive in-depth interviews with attorneys and clients, and are designed to assess technical legal ability, professional conduct, client service, commercial awareness/astuteness, diligence, commitment, and other qualities most valued by the client. Rankings and editorial commentary are available at www.chambersandpartners.com.

---

Follow Hinckley Allen on Twitter and LinkedIn for the latest news and updates.

Associated People

Doris J. Licht

Paul A. Silver

Related Practices

Trusts & Estates

Albany Boston Hartford Manchester New York Providence