

Alexa T. Millinger

Associate

Hartford

860-331-2856

amillinger@hinckleyallen.com

Practices

Litigation, Government Enforcement & White Collar Defense, Intellectual Property, Intellectual Property Litigation

Education

University of Connecticut School of Law, J.D., 2014 with honors

Symposium editor, Connecticut Law Review

Connecticut Moot Court Board

Editor in Chief, Pro Se, campus newspaper

George Washington University, B.A., 2009
magna cum laude

About

As a member of the litigation department, Alexa regularly represents clients in complex business disputes. Her practice includes a wide variety of case types in state and federal court and before administrative agencies, including contract disputes, media and First Amendment law, employment disputes, and negligence actions, as well as mediation and arbitration. Alexa also engages in pro bono work on behalf of asylum-seekers, pro se inmates, and veterans, among others.

Credentials

Work Experience

Hinckley Allen

- Associate (2014-Present)
- Summer Associate (2013)

Office of the Attorney General of Connecticut

- Certified Legal Intern (2012-2013)

Instituto Cultural Reinaldo Macchi School

- Executive Director (2009-2010)

Charitable & Civic Involvement

- Big Brothers Big Sisters, Mentor
- Hartford City Ballet, Board Member
- University of Connecticut Asylum and Human Rights Clinic

Bar Memberships

- Connecticut
- Massachusetts
- United States District Court, Connecticut
- United States District Court, Massachusetts

Languages

- Spanish

Latest News & Insight

Publications

Hinckley Allen Represents Journalist in First Amendment Case, May 11, 2019

SCOTUS to Hear Argument on FOIA's Confidential Information Exemption, April 2, 2019

Albany Boston Chicago Hartford Manchester New York Providence