

Meaghan L. Krupa

Associate

Providence

401-457-5136

mkrupa@hinckleyallen.com

Practices

Corporate & Business

Education

Duke University School of Law, J.D. & LL.M., 2013

magna cum laude

Duke Journal of Gender Law and Policy, Managing Editor

Duke Law and Technology Review, Content Editor

Clinical Practice Award

Duke Law Class of 1962 Scholar

Thomas F. Black, Jr. Memorial Scholar, Rhode Island Bar Association

University of Cambridge, M.Phil., 2008

Boston College, B.A., 2007

magna cum laude

Phi Beta Kappa

About

Meaghan has represented companies, private equity firms, and financial institutions in a variety of capital market transactions. She has also assisted clients with Exchange Act filings, and advised on the intricacies of federal securities law. Meaghan is committed to the advancement of small businesses and entrepreneurs, with a special focus on women- and minority-owned businesses.

Credentials

Work Experience

Hinckley Allen

- Associate (2019-Present)

Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP

- Associate (2014-2019)
- Summer Associate (2012)

Delaware Court of Chancery, Honorable Vice Chancellor Glasscock III

- Law Clerk (2014)

DeSisto Law

- Summer Intern (2011)

Charitable & Civic Involvement

- Duke University
  - DukeNY Regional Board of Directors, Law School Representative (2018-2019)
  - School of Law Alumni Association, New Lawyers Division (2013-2018)
  - School of Law Wintersession Instructor, M&A Litigation in Practice (2017)

Bar Memberships

- New York
- Pending in Rhode Island

Latest News & Insight

Firm News

Hinckley Allen Welcomes Meaghan L. Krupa, Corporate & Business Attorney, March 1, 2019

Albany Boston Chicago Hartford Manchester New York Providence