About

Dan is a member of Hinckley Allen's Litigation Department. He was a Summer Associate with Hinckley Allen in 2018, where he gained hands-on experience supporting a variety of practice groups. During his time at Boston College Law School, his team won the Wendell F. Grimes Moot Court Competition, and he later went on to compete in the National Moot Court Competition. Dan also received a Pro Bono Excellence Award for contributing over 100 hours of service to the community. Most recently, Dan served as a judicial intern for the Honorable O. Rogeriee Thompson of the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit.
